TOUR OF SARDINIA
A magic island in 7 days

Tour of Sardinia

The “Tour of Sardinia” in seven days, organized by 100 all’ora, aims to promote the excellencies and the uniqueness of Sardinian beauties and traditions under a completely new perspective.

From the wild and isolated areas in the countryside to the outstanding beauties of the uncontaminated and unknown shoreline.

From the direct contact with centuries-long farmers’ traditions to a four-day supercars driving experience in the magnificent roads of the island for an impressive driving journey of 1.000 km (circa 620 miles). And, finally, exceptional and imaginative accommodations, such as a unique Sardinia’s lighthouse. On the last day a private boat will accompany the guests discovering the amazing Maddalena Archipelago known to be the area with the most heavenly beaches in Sardinia. The tour will be simply unforgettable thanks also to the impeccable, tailor-made services offered to all guests.

Day 1 - Arrival

Arrival at the International Airport of Olbia (30 min. by car) and transfer to the Hotel Cala di Volpe in Porto Cervo with a car with driver. The Airport of Olbia has several daily flights from/to Rome, Milan and the main European Airports.

The Hotel has been designed by Jacques Couëlle as an old fishing Sardinian village, the resort's creative canopy of archways, porticos and turrets enjoys a staggeringly beautiful setting. It's considered to be one of the Mediterranean's most luxurious resorts and it has one of the largest saltwater pools in Europe. Porto Cervo is the glamorous capital of the Costa Smeralda (Emerald Coast).

Afternoon at leisure (Golf, SPA, beach, sports...) and dinner at the refined Cala di Volpe Restaurant located inside the resort.
